RIGHTS OF OUR CHINESE

THE SAME IF NATURALIZED

An Important Ruling on a Much-
Mooted Case by the Immigration Bureau.

The following is from the Call:

Port Collector Stratton received an official communication yesterday from the Immigration Bureau at Washington to the effect that all the native and naturalized citizens of the Hawaiian Islands, irrespective of race, color or previous condition of servitude, are citizens of the United States, and that the wives and children of such, although aliens, become citizens and acquire the political status of the father, and the right to visit and reside in the United States, exclusion acts and immigration laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

The opinion was called forth by Collector Stratton's action in the matter of the application of two Chinese sailors on the ship John Currier for admission to the United States, on the ground that they were natives of the Hawaiian Islands. They failed to establish their claim to the satisfaction of the Collector and they were denied a landing. In his report to the Secretary of the Treasury, Collector Stratton stated that even if the applicants had proved that they were natives of Hawaii he would not have allowed them to land, they being of the Chinese race. He asked whether in such a contingency the department would sustain his action.

COMMISSIONER'S OPINION.

The following reply arrived by mail yesterday morning, dated Washington, March 23:

"The bureau acknowledges the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. propounding a question of law in connection with your action in refusing permission to land at your port to two Chinese sailors who asserted that they were native born Hawaiian citizens. In the particular case referred to you state that their application was refused upon the ground that they did not present sufficient proof of the facts alleged by them in support of their claim, but that had such facts been clearly shown, while not clear upon the point, you are rather inclined to the belief that such persons, whether laborers or not, cannot be admitted into the United States under the provisions of section 4 of the act of Congress, approved April 30, 1900, which prescribes a form of government for the Territory of Hawaii.

"This issue has heretofore been raised by the Collector of Customs at the port of Honolulu, H. T., and in the absence of any judicial ruling thereon, was referred to the honorable the Attorney General of the United States.

"In response to said reference an administrative ruling was returned on January 16 of the current year to the effect that Hawaiian-born persons of the Chinese race having been made citizens of the Republic of Hawaii, under the section of the act of April 30, 1900, above referred to, are made citizens of the Territory of Hawaii and of the United States. Said opinion is hereto appended for your information. Respectfully,
F. H. LARNED,
"Acting Commissioner General."

HISTORICAL PRECEDENTS.

The questions determined by the opinion of Attorney General Griggs referred to are as follows:

1. Whether a person born in the Hawaiian Islands in 1885 of Chinese parents who are laborers, and taken to China with his mother in 1890, is entitled to re-enter the Territory of Hawaii, where his father still resides?

2. Whether the wife and children of a Chinese person, who was naturalized in 1887 in Hawaii and still resides there, are entitled to enter that Territory "by virtue of the citizenship" of the husband and father?

Mr. Griggs' opinion goes on to say the Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii provided that "all persons born or naturalized in the Hawaiian Islands and subject to the jurisdiction of the Republic are citizens thereof." The act of April 30, 1900, providing a government for the Territory of Hawaii, declared that "all persons who were citizens of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States and citizens of the Territory of Hawaii."

The treaty of the cession of Louisiana and the treaty with Mexico and the Alaska treaty are quoted as illustrations of the taking in as citizens of the United States of the natives and citizens of ceded and conquered territory. There is one exception, and that is the bill to provide a government for Porto Rico. The bill as originally introduced in Congress declared that all the inhabitants of Porto Rico, with a certain qualification and exception, "shall be deemed and held to be citizens of the United States." This provision was stricken out before the bill became law.

The sport of boxing is finding much favor in Honolulu, and the musical swat of the padded mitt is to be heard in the land with increasing frequency. Lon Agnew has a class which is steadily growing, and which includes some men who are already doing clever work with their hands. Among them are Sam Chillingworth, Herbert Dow, Tom Dow, Charles Marquez, John Doyle, Oliver K. Akau, Charles Carter, Emert W. Brown, H. C. Mossman, J. W. McKinnon and Charles Osborne.

Mrs. A. W. Rogers and her daughter, Miss F. M. Rogers, came to Honolulu on the Sonoma, and will spend several months here. They are acquaintances of Rev. Alexander Mackintosh.

A TESTIMONIAL FROM OLD ENGLAND.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved, and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.

WAS TORTURED

An Indianapolis Woman's Sworn Statement of the Way In Which She Was Saved
From Death.

(From the Indianapolis News.)

Mrs. Mary K. Burns of 505 Hiawatha street, Indianapolis, Ind., is living evidence of the wonderful powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The remedy that cures where all others fail. For years she endured all the tortures of indigestion, nervousness and female weakness, a complication of troubles that five physicians confessed their inability to cure. Her story is well worth the attention of every woman. She says:

"My illness commenced after my first child was born. I was so weak and nervous that it seemed I would never get strong. For twelve years I doctored for female trouble, complicated with nervousness and indigestion. My stomach was so weak that for days at a time I could eat nothing but bread and milk. I was also troubled with palpitation of the heart and was often so miserable that I could not lie down. Five doctors prescribed for me and I took many kinds of medicine without being benefited. One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised in the papers and I decided to give them a trial. I did so and had not finished taking the first box when I knew that I was getting better.

"You can imagine the relief I felt when I found that after years of suffering I was being cured. I continued taking the pills and the female trouble entirely disappeared. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People did more for me than it was claimed they would do. Since I first took the pills I have not needed a doctor nor any other medicine; they have restored my health, strength and happiness.

"MRS. MARY K. BURNS."
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of October, 1900.
